Criminal convictions

If you have any relevant unspent criminal convictions, you will need to inform us within 14 days of accepting your offer by sending the following details to declaration@leeds.ac.uk: your name, your application ID number, the programme applied for and the title of the offence for which you were convicted, including the date and sentence imposed. Full details of the criminal conviction policy, the process followed and the list of relevant convictions can be found at www.leeds.ac.uk/declaration. You do not need to email us if you do not have a criminal conviction.

Important information

We know that choosing to pursue a postgraduate degree is a big step. To help you through the process, please visit our dedicated offer holder webpages at www.leeds.ac.uk/masters-offer. Here you will find lots of useful information, including details of accommodation, facilities and support. You will also be able to chat online to our current students to find out more about life at the University of Leeds.

Please be aware that we will continue to review our courses and other elements of the student experience in response to COVID-19, as required. We may need to adapt our provision to ensure students remain safe. For the most up-to-date information on COVID-19, regularly visit our website, which we will continue to update: www.leeds.ac.uk/covid19faqs.

Course information

Important up-to-date information about your course can be found at courses.leeds.ac.uk. This includes course content, outline module information (including which modules are compulsory or optional), methods of teaching and assessment, and whether your course is professionally accredited. You will also be able to see the circumstances where changes may be made to your course.

The University reviews all our courses on a regular basis. The exact details of the modules available, including methods of teaching and assessment and specific content, are due to be published on 2 May 2023 in the University's Module and Programme Catalogue at www.leeds.ac.uk/PGTprogramme-catalogue. In the unlikely event that there are any significant changes since you submitted your application, you will be notified.

Paying your fees

If you are self-funding, you must either pay your fee in full before you register or pay 50% before you register and set up an instalment plan to pay the remaining balance. Please do not use third-party agents to transfer payments to the University of Leeds, as this can significantly increase your risk of being exposed to financial crime.

You may be asked to supply details on the source of your funds. We must do this (where relevant) as part of the controls implemented by the University to ensure compliance with financial sanctions and anti-money laundering regulations, and to ensure our bank will accept payments from you. This offer of study does not guarantee that we can accept your source of payment and failure to provide an acceptable source of payment may result in the withdrawal of this offer. During your studies and as part of the ongoing controls required to ensure compliance, we may require further information regarding the source of funds associated with payments. Failure to provide this information may affect your ongoing status as a student.

If you are receiving a Postgraduate Master's Loan from Student Finance England you can set up an alternative instalment plan of three payments by direct debit in line with your loan payments. This will only be available if we have received confirmation from Student Finance England that your Postgraduate Master's Loan has been approved, therefore you are encouraged to apply as early as possible at www.gov.uk/masters-loan/apply. The Postgraduate Master's Loan is available to help with course fees and living costs while you
