Event Report

On October 5th, 2018, ISME kicked off the festive season with a spectacular Dance Competition. Held amidst the vibrant atmosphere of the festive season in India, the competition aimed to celebrate the rich cultural heritage and diversity of dance forms across the country. With participants showcasing their talent and passion for dance, the event promised to be an exhilarating display of rhythm, movement, and creativity.

The Dance Competition commenced with an opening ceremony, featuring traditional Indian music and dance performances to set the tone for the event. Participants from various academic programs eagerly took to the stage to showcase their dance skills, representing a wide array of dance styles and traditions.
