Event Report

On October 12th, 2018, ISME organized an entertaining and engaging event titled the "Dubsmash Competition". This competition aimed to provide students with a platform to showcase their creativity, acting skills, and humor through short video clips dubbed with famous dialogues or songs. With enthusiastic participation from students across various academic programs, the event promised to be a lively celebration of talent and entertainment.

The Dubsmash Competition kicked off with an introduction by the event organizers, explaining the rules and criteria for participation. Participants were given the freedom to choose any dialogue or song of their choice to dub over, allowing for a diverse range of performances.

In conclusion, the Dubsmash Competition at ISME was a delightful celebration of talent, creativity, and entertainment. Through a series of engaging performances, participants demonstrated their acting skills and brought laughter and joy to the audience. The event exemplified ISME's commitment to providing students with opportunities for self-expression and personal development beyond the classroom. Moving forward, ISME looks forward to organizing more such events that inspire creativity, foster talent, and bring the community together in celebration.
