Event Report

On 22nd June 2018, the students of International School of Management Excellence (ISME) organized a captivating skit performance activity, showcasing their talent, creativity, and passion for dramatic arts. The event provided a platform for students to explore various themes, narratives, and characters through the medium of theater, while also fostering collaboration, teamwork, and self-expression.

The skit performance activity aimed to celebrate the art of theater and its ability to entertain, educate, and inspire audiences. Organized by a team of dedicated students, the event sought to showcase the diverse talents and perspectives of the ISME community while also promoting a culture of creativity, innovation, and artistic expression.

The skits covered a wide range of themes, ranging from social issues and cultural dilemmas to personal struggles and human relationships. Students explored topics such as gender equality, environmental conservation, workplace dynamics, and mental health awareness, using theater as a medium to initiate dialogue and provoke reflection.

The skit performance activity received an enthusiastic response from the audience, with students, faculty, and guests alike praising the creativity, passion, and professionalism of the performers. The skits succeeded in entertaining, engaging, and enlightening the audience, leaving a lasting impact and prompting discussions about the issues and themes explored in the performances.
