Event Report

On the evening of 15th March 2019, International School Of Management Excellence (ISME) resonated with laughter and applause as it hosted a Mimicry Competition activity. This event provided a platform for students to highlight their talent for impersonation and comedy, fostering a spirit of creativity and entertainment.

One of the main highlights of the event was the celebrity impersonation segment, where participants hilariously imitated famous personalities from the world of entertainment, politics, and sports. From iconic dialogue delivery to signature gestures, each impersonation brought the audience to fits of laughter.

Another captivating aspect of the Mimicry Competition was the display of voice modulation skills, where participants imitated the distinctive voices of various characters and accents. The versatility and precision of the voice impersonations added an extra layer of humor and entertainment to the performances.
