Event Report

On August 30, 2019, ISME hosted a vibrant Cultural Evening, bringing together 35 students to celebrate the diverse cultural heritage within the campus community. The event showcased a colorful array of performances, including traditional dances, musical renditions, and cultural presentations. Through spirited displays of talent and creativity, participants captivated the audience, fostering a sense of unity and appreciation for cultural diversity.

The Cultural Evening at ISME underscored the university's commitment to promoting cross-cultural understanding and fostering a sense of belonging among its students. By providing a platform for students to share and celebrate their cultural identities, the event encouraged mutual respect and dialogue, enriching the campus community with the richness of cultural exchange. The evening served as a joyful reminder of the interconnectedness of cultures and the importance of embracing diversity in all its forms.
