ISME Campus

Event Report

On September 12, 2019, ISME organized a dynamic HR Activity, engaging 35 students in hands-on learning experiences related to human resource management. The event provided participants with valuable insights into various HR processes, including recruitment, training, and employee relations. Through interactive workshops, case studies, and role-playing exercises, students gained practical knowledge and skills essential for effective HR practices in the workplace.

The HR Activity at ISME exemplified the university's commitment to preparing students for success in the field of human resources. By providing experiential learning opportunities, the event equipped participants with a deeper understanding of HR principles and strategies, empowering them to become future HR leaders. The activity fostered collaboration, critical thinking, and problem-solving skills, ensuring that students are well-equipped to navigate the complexities of HR management in their future careers.
