Event Report

On October 25, 2019, ISME was illuminated with joy and festivity as it celebrated Diwali, the festival of lights, with 35 students. The campus came alive with vibrant colors, twinkling diyas, and the aroma of delicious sweets as participants gathered to commemorate the triumph of light over darkness. Students showcased traditional dances, exchanged sweets, and participated in cultural activities, fostering a sense of unity and camaraderie amidst the celebrations.

The Diwali celebration at ISME exemplified the university's commitment to embracing cultural diversity and promoting community spirit. Through the festivities, students not only honored ancient traditions but also forged bonds of friendship and mutual respect. The event served as a joyous reminder of the values of compassion,
