Event Report

On June 28, 2019, ISME ignited social awareness through an impactful Street Play event, featuring the talents of 34 students. The performance unfolded on the campus grounds, captivating audiences with its poignant portrayal of contemporary societal issues. From themes of environmental conservation to gender equality, the students used the medium of theater to provoke thought and inspire action, engaging spectators in meaningful dialogue about pressing concerns.

The Street Play at ISME exemplified the university's dedication to nurturing socially conscious leaders and fostering community engagement. Through their dynamic performances, participants not only entertained but also empowered audiences to reflect on the world around them and consider avenues for positive change. The event served as a powerful reminder of the transformative potential of art in advocating for social justice and amplifying marginalized voices within the campus community and beyond.
