Event Report

On July 5, 2019, ISME hosted the Vad Vivad Debate Competition, drawing participation from 35 students who demonstrated their eloquence and critical thinking skills. The event provided a platform for spirited debate on a range of contemporary issues, from politics to ethics and beyond. Participants engaged in rigorous argumentation, presenting well-researched viewpoints and engaging in constructive discourse, showcasing their intellectual prowess and debating acumen.

The Vad Vivad Debate Competition at ISME exemplified the university's commitment to fostering intellectual curiosity and promoting civil discourse among its students. Through their participation, students not only sharpened their public speaking and persuasion skills but also gained valuable insights into complex issues facing society today. The event served as a testament to the importance of open dialogue and respectful exchange of ideas in cultivating informed and engaged citizens within the campus community.
