Throughout the week, various activities and events were held to showcase the traditions, cuisines, music, and attire of different ethnicities represented in our college. Here's a brief overview of some of the highlights:

Cultural Performances: Students from different cultural backgrounds showcased their talents through dance, music, and theatrical performances. It was a joyous display of cultural pride and artistic expression.

Food Festival: The campus came alive with the aroma of diverse cuisines during the Food Festival. Attendees had the opportunity to savor traditional dishes from various cultures, fostering culinary exploration and appreciation.

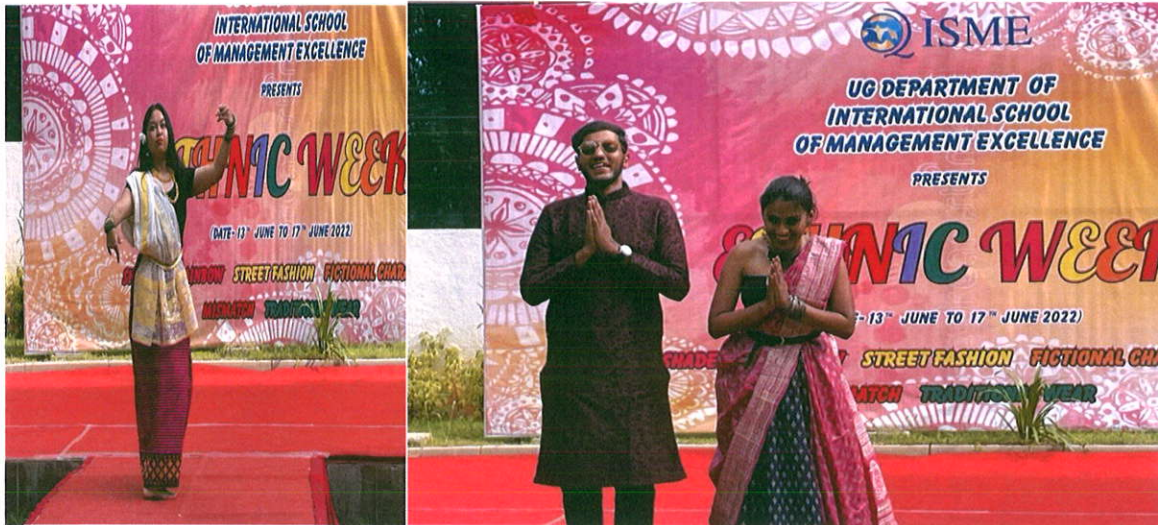

Ethnic Fashion Show: The week culminated in a spectacular Ethnic Fashion Show, where students dressed in traditional attire from their respective cultures walked the runway. It was a visual feast of colors, fabrics, and styles, reflecting the beauty of cultural diversity.

Ethnic Week 2021 was a resounding success, thanks to the enthusiastic participation and support from students, faculty, and staff.
