Event Report

The Speech Contest at the International School of Management Excellence (ISME) showcased students' eloquence, passion, and intellect through a diverse range of topics and perspectives. Organized by the Literary & Communication Club, participants delivered prepared speeches on themes such as environmental sustainability, mental health awareness, gender equality, and technology's societal impact, followed by engaging Q&A sessions. The exceptional quality of speeches highlighted students' dedication to research, preparation, and effective communication, impressing judges with their rhetorical techniques and stage presence. The transparent evaluation process, conducted by experienced judges, fostered growth among contestants while affirming ISME's commitment to nurturing individuals capable of meaningful societal contributions.
