Event Report

The Stand-Cup event at ISME, hosted by the Lit Com Club on February 4th, 2022, provided students with a lively platform to exhibit their comedic flair through stand-up performances in Kannada, English, and Hindi, fostering a spirited atmosphere of humor and creativity. Students from diverse linguistic backgrounds delivered a variety of comedic routines, ranging from observational humor to satirical commentary, captivating the audience with their witty anecdotes and humorous insights. Despite its informal format, participants were evaluated on comedic delivery and originality by a panel of judges, who provided constructive feedback while acknowledging the comedic talent displayed. Ultimately, the event served not only as an entertaining showcase of laughter but also as a celebration of student camaraderie and cultural diversity, affirming the power of humor to unite people across different backgrounds.
