Event Report

The International School of Management Excellence (ISME) held a vibrant Mock Parliament Discussion, showcasing the students' prowess in parliamentary procedure and debate. The event emulated the workings of a legislative assembly, with students assuming roles as parliamentarians, ministers, and speakers. Diverse topics ranging from education reform to environmental sustainability were passionately deliberated upon, reflecting the students' awareness of current affairs and societal issues. Through this simulation, participants honed their public speaking, negotiation, and critical thinking skills, fostering a culture of democratic engagement and civic responsibility among the student body.

The Mock Parliament Discussion at ISME provided a platform for students to express their viewpoints, engage in constructive dialogue, and propose solutions to real-world challenges. Amidst fervent exchanges and eloquent speeches, participants demonstrated their ability to articulate arguments, collaborate effectively, and respect differing opinions. The event not only enriched their academic experience but also nurtured leadership qualities and democratic values essential for their future endeavors. As students departed the session, they carried with them not only newfound knowledge but also a sense of empowerment and civic duty, ready to contribute positively to society.
