Event Report

The International School of Management Excellence (ISME) hosted a vibrant "Face Painting" event, igniting creativity and school spirit. Students of all backgrounds came together, transforming faces into colorful masterpieces. From intricate butterflies to roaring lions, the artistic talents of both painters and volunteers shone through. Laughter filled the air as students sported their unique designs, fostering a sense of community and fun. The event proved to be a delightful break from academics, reminding everyone of the importance of artistic expression and joyful
