Event Report

The International School of Management Excellence (ISME) rang in the harvest festival of Pongal with a vibrant celebration at the college amphitheatre. Students, faculty, and staff came together to commemorate this traditional South Indian festival. The amphitheatre was decked out in colorful decorations, reflecting the spirit of Pongal. The festivities included traditional performances like folk dances and music, creating a lively atmosphere. This celebration served as a wonderful opportunity for the ISME community to embrace cultural diversity and traditions, fostering a sense of togetherness among students from various backgrounds.
