ABOUT 'CENTRE FOR RESEARCH IN SOCIAL SCIENCES AND EDUCATION' (CERSSE)

CERSSE is a part of JAIN (Deemed-to-be University) and has been involved in Socially Relevant Research, Consultancy and Extension Activities in the field of Social Sciences and Education, with a focus on Social Transformation and Empowerment. The Centre has been instrumental in carrying out research in various aspects of Social and Political Science, with a special focus on Education in general, and teaching-learning processes in particular. Our research and consultancy activities have spanned not only India, but various countries of the World including South Sudan, Nepal, and Myanmar. We have also undertaken qualitative and quantitative research projects on the State of Democracy in South Asia, Society and Politics between Elections, surveys on Indian Politics and Elections, as well as on Quality of Education in Higher Educational Institutions. We design teaching-learning pedagogy for various curriculums, and our faculty has undertaken many workshops for training teachers and students alike. The Centre is also coordinating the Research Programme of the University in all disciplines of Engineering, Humanities, Languages, Management and Commerce, Sciences, and Social Sciences. Since the starting of the programme in 2009, the University has awarded 376 Doctoral Degrees and 291 M Phil Degrees.

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY:

JAIN (Deemed-to-be University), an intellectual destination that draws inspired students from more than 35 countries to India's Silicon Valley — Bengaluru, has been established with an aim to provide quality education and entrepreneurial development. Its commitment to learning, research, academia and entrepreneurial development, has been the reason that National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) has awarded 'A' Grade to JAIN with a CGPA of 3. 31 on a 4-point scale. A culturally vibrant campus constituting of students from various states, and countries, contributed to achieving this award which reinvigorates the culture and rich academic traditions of the University. Over the years, the University has made conscious and concerted efforts to build on its strengths and consolidate its achievements. Certified ISO 9001:2008 for quality management by TUV Rheinland, JAIN is a member of Association of Universities of Asia and the Pacific (AUAP). JAIN has also been awarded 4 stars in the Young University category in Karnataka by KSURF iCARE Ratings for teaching excellence and employability, infrastructure, research excellence, inclusiveness and social impact.
